

Double the Value of Your Operator's Service.

The employer who considers his employees as well as himself will secure a better day's work. The light key action—an inclusive Monarch feature—so lightens the operator's labor that she turns out a greater volume of work, proportionately increasing the value of her services. The thoughtful employer must appreciate

Monarch LIGHT TOUCH

Send for Monarch literature—it thoroughly explains Monarch construction. Try the Monarch you will at once learn that its superiority actually rests in the machine itself, not merely in what we say about it.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Monarch machines may be purchased on the monthly payment plan. A post card will bring full particulars.

Don't Let Your Money Loaf

If you have much or little money, better have it earning something.

Money makes money only when it is put to work. Remember, all fortunes had their foundations laid in the early days of the country. Money is sort of a "strong financial institution" that pays 4 per cent interest on it, compounded annually.

We are doing this for hundreds.

The Cape Girardeau County Stock Breeders' Show and Sale Association had a meeting in Jackson last Saturday. At this time they expected to have lists of all live stock that is to be offered for sale on Thursday, November 16th, 1911, but several persons having failed to report, the time was extended to next Saturday, October 14th, at which time all members of the association are requested to bring or send their consignment of stock for the sale, in order that the same can be properly listed in a catalog for the benefit of prospective buyers.

Notice.

There will be a stock sale at Jackson, Mo., on Thursday, November 16th, 1911, of all kinds of fine blooded stock for breeding purposes, such as horses, cattle, hogs and sheep. This will be a genuine sale. For further particulars and catalogue of stock offered for sale, address, the Secretary of Cape Girardeau County Stock Breeders' Show and Sale Association, after October 10th.

Frisco Corn Show.

This show will be held in Cape Girardeau on the 15th of October. All entries must be in by 9 o'clock on the morning of the show. All boys between the ages of 18 and 40 living in the county are eligible to enter this show. The prize is a $100 free scholarship to the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri. The show will be held in the Himmelberger-Harrison building in the morning and university representatives will talk to those present in the afternoon on corn growing.

J. T. McDonald, Supt. of Schools.

Being now familiar with the composition of comets, we see nothing standing in the way of making our own comets whenever we desire them. All that is necessary is to erect a laboratory—in the desert of Sahara or Labrador—manufacture a sufficient quantity of cyanogen gas and nonoxide carbon and set the thing afloat. No waiting for the expiration of cycle upon cycle for the return of old, shop-worn comets. Try our home-made comets.

Airships and flying machines as news carriers encourages local gossip.

The Frisco corn show will be held in the Himmelberger-Harrison building October 16th. The show will be given in the interest of all the farmers of Cape county who desire to attend, but the young farm boys are especially urged to be present, as the latest methods of corn growing will be explained by men who have given the subject their undivided attention for years, and the Frisco has employed them more especially to develop the young farmers along its lines into progressive, up-to-the-minute methods of culture. This is an opportunity of a lifetime to learn what the experts are doing and how they have accomplished so much in their efforts as above explained. Come to the Cape, October 16th and attend the show.

General News Items.

J. Matt Zimmerman was appointed special highway engineer to superintend the building of the road from Marble Hill to the Cape county line. We hope when this road is completed that it will give the good roads movement such an impetus that it will go on and on until the main highways of the county are in condition to be a credit to the people of the county. —Lutesville Banner.

Boone county has an old man who has lived on the same farm for the past eighty-five years. A woman living near Columbia, in the same county, has nearly equalled this record, having been living on her farm for eighty-three years and having been born on the same.

September, 1911, left behind it a record for heat which will be hard to exceed or equal again. The average maximum temperature was more than three degrees higher than for any previous year in the past, and nearly seven degrees higher than the average. Twenty days in the month showed maximum temperatures of ninety degrees or above.

A hog was recently on exhibition at Columbia, which stands thirty-eight inches high, measures eleven inches around the smallest part of the leg, measures seven feet and four inches around the body and nine feet from tip of the nose to end of the tail and weighs 1,100 pounds. This is said to be one of the largest hogs in the state.

A bear belonging to a carnival company which was showing at Windsor broke loose from its owner and ran out on the streets of the town. The streets were crowded with children and grown persons, and great excitement resulted. Finally some men managed to catch and hold the bear, in spite of the animal's biting them, till he could be roped and dragged back to his cage.

David Crockett, a confederate hero of the Civil war, cousin of the famous Texan of that name, died at his home six miles east of Columbia Oct. 3, aged 72. In the border warfare in Missouri the senior Crockett was hanged to a tree by Union soldiers and rescued at the point of death by his comrades. The tree, a huge elm, stands today as a landmark and war-time monument near Two-Mile Station.

Albert Edwards of Los Angeles, Cal., seeking a prize of $10,000 offered by the citizens of Elwood, Ind., for visiting every capital of the United States in three years, passed through Fulton recently pushing a wheelbarrow. Edwards left Elwood Sept. 4th and reached Jefferson City Wednesday, the third capital of his trip, having previously passed thro' Springfield, Ill., and Indianapolis, Ind. He will journey from there to Little Rock, Ark. He is not to beg, borrow nor ride except across streams where ferries are maintained, and is earning his way by selling post cards of his majesty and wheelbarrow.

About two dozen Boone county farmers have formed a "lamb club." When their lambs are ready for market they will ship in one lot, first having a competent judge cull the lot and remove all animals which are not desirable. It has been found to pay in other communities.
